RTN. RTR. ANIRUDH G KULKARNI

Rtn. Rtr. Anirudh G Kulkarni is a passionate Rotaractor, dynamic leader, and accomplished political strategist who has been an integral part of the Rotaract movement since 2017. Born in Hubballi and raised in Namma Bengaluru, Anirudh completed his schooling at The New Cambridge English High School. He pursued his Pre-University and earned a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Surana College, affiliated with Bangalore University.

From a young age, he demonstrated strong leadership skills, complemented by active participation in academics and extracurricular activities. Anirudh is a Rajya Puraskar Scout and a dedicated sportsman. His love for sports began early, leading him to represent Team Karnataka in various national-level tournaments in football, hockey, and floorball. His achievements in scouting and sports not only reflect discipline and determination but also shaped his team spirit and resilience, qualities that continue to define his leadership style today.

His Rotaract journey started with the Rotaract Club of Surana College, where his enthusiasm and vision quickly earned him recognition. Over the years, Anirudh has held multiple key leadership roles such as President of the Rotaract Club of Banashankari, District Sergeant-at-Arms, Zonal Rotaract Representative (ZRR) for two consecutive years, Director for Public Image and Partnership & Outreach, and District Rotaract Secretary – Operations. He has also led major initiatives, including as Chair of the 1st Rotaract Friendship Cup and Co-Chair of Yugam, the first Annual Rotaract District Conference, both of which made a significant impact on the district's fellowship and visibility. He is presently an active member of the Rotaract Club of Bangalore JP Nagar, continuing his legacy of service and leadership.

Professionally, Anirudh is a skilled political strategist with a deep understanding of grassroots politics and electoral dynamics. He began his journey in the political field with an internship at the Crime and Political Bureau of Asianet Suvana News, later joining Hudl as a Sports Analyst. His analytical skills and ability to interpret public sentiment led him to the world of political consulting, where he now works with political leaders and parties across India to craft data-driven strategies, design impactful campaigns, and manage onground execution.

Beyond his professional and Rotaract commitments, Anirudh remains deeply rooted in his love for sports and his city. You'll often find him cheering passionately for Bengaluru FC from the iconic West Block A at Kanteerava Stadium, or catching a spirited game of tennis at a local sports bar with friends. His energy off the field is as infectious as it is on the field, making him a true people's person.

A leader by action, a strategist by profession, and a Rotaractor by passion, Rtn. Rtr. Anirudh G Kulkarni continues to inspire many with his unwavering dedication to service, leadership, and building meaningful impact in every space he enters.
