Guidelines for Twin Club Agreement

Purpose

The Twin Club Agreement is a partnership between two Rotaract clubs from different countries, aimed at promoting friendship, cultural exchange, and collaborative service projects. This initiative helps expand global understanding, build networks, and strengthen Rotary values.

These guidelines provide clarity on how clubs can initiate, formalize, and sustain such partnerships.

Who Can Enter Into a Twin Club Agreement

- Any Rotaract club from different countries.
- Clubs with shared objectives and interest in community service, leadership development, and cultural exchange.
- Clubs willing to actively participate in joint projects and maintain open communication.

Key Objectives of the Twin Club Agreement

1. Promote fellowship and goodwill between clubs across borders.
2. Collaborate on community service projects that create meaningful impact.
3. Share experiences, best practices, and learnings to strengthen club operations.
4. Encourage cultural understanding and international networking.
5. Support member development through joint activities, learnings, and exchange programs.

Recommended Requirements

1. Conduct at least one joint service project together (falling under Rotary areas of focus)
2. Conduct at least two joint meetings (can be one General Body meeting & 1 Board of Directors meeting) (virtually or in person)
3. Develop and roll out a joint bulletin or newsletter.
4. Conduct one joint celebratory or cultural event.

5. Pass a board resolution authorizing the club president to enter into the agreement.

6. Draft and sign a formal Twin Club Agreement including objectives, commitments, and timeline.

Recommended Structure of the Agreement

The Twin Club Agreement should cover:

- Names and contact details of both clubs.
- Purpose and objectives of the partnership.
- Duration of the agreement (Until 30th June 2027, renewable annually).
- Responsibilities of each club (communication, projects, events).
- Appointed Twin Club Coordinators or contact persons.
- Guidelines for reporting and sharing updates.
- Procedures for conflict resolution and amendments.
- Termination clause and notice period.

Financial Responsibility

- Each club bears its own expenses unless otherwise agreed.
- Joint fundraising efforts must be documented, transparent, and approved by both clubs.

Benefits of Twin Club Partnerships

- Exposure to global best practices and leadership models.
- Opportunities for joint humanitarian projects.
- Enhanced member engagement and morale.
- Broader recognition within Rotary and community platforms.
- Lifelong friendships and networks across continents.
